

ASTA/NJ Chamber Music Institute at Kean University

Proudly Announces that World-renowned Guzheng Master & Educator Yang Yi will present a performance & workshop during CMI 2010

Sessions I & II:

2500 years of Journey on guzheng(21-stringed Chinese zither)

Learn More & Register Online:

www.astanj.com/chambermusic.php

ASTA/NJ CHAMBER MUSIC INSTITUTE 2010 AT KEAN UNIVERSITY

~ A Chamber Music Performance Program...

A chamber music performance program for students 8th grade through high school who play violin, viola, cello, double bass, classical guitar or harp. Special presentations, master classes, free elective courses, reading sessions and more!

Session I: July 25-31 2010

Guest Artists: Kean University Concert Artist Ensemble & Jade Trio

Session II: Date August 1-7, 2010

Guest Artists: Daedalus Quartet & JACK Quartet

~ Register Now!

It's easy to file an online application at www.astanj.com/chambermusic.php.

Performance requirements, program information and easy to file online application at www.astanj.com/chambermusic.php.

Questions? Contact CMI Director: Christopher Kenniff at cmkgtr@yahoo.com, or 908.656.1548

Students Say...

"I had a wonderful experience at ASTA/CMI 2009. It was the best and most beneficial summer camp I have ever attended, and the most I have ever learned! Thanks to you and everyone involved."

"This past August, my son attended CMI for the first time...the first thing he said to me when we came for the concert on Saturday was "I want to come back next year," with a big smile on his face."

"My son had an amazing time at the chamber music camp... Since the CMI experience, he has been playing bass non-stop!! He thought the faculty was excellent. Thank you so much for running this excellent program!!

"CMI has given me so many fantastic memories that I'll never forget!"

PHOTO CREDIT: NEIL AARONSON